The duration of the course comprises of one weekly session of the course lasting two hours, in addition to with one monthly international interactive online session held on the last Friday of each month at 9 p.m. [given consideration to different time zones globally].

PROGRAM CONTENT

- Over the three year period, junior youths will be exposed to an enriching and engaging material that is simple and profound through a series of core developmental textbooks - Drawing a Path of Service with Light Series.
- Throughout the program, they will encounter junior youth characters who are undergoing similar changes as experienced by themselves, and who are questioning the world that they see before them, and exploring ideas that can lead towards positive change.
- Junior youths will have the opportunity to explore visual language and develop their power to express themselves visually and creatively in their approach to solving challenges that they see around them.

- Through this discovery, exploration and experiential learning the program, seeks to harness knowledge, insights, skills and abilities of the junior youth, challenging their latent minds and encouraging them to be agents of change in their communities and in the wider world.
- The concept of service to others is fundamental to the ENVIZZIO program. Junior youth will be encouraged to undertake simple acts of service using visual expressions and interpretation.
- It is envisioned that over the three year period these simple acts will transition organically into larger projects of complexity.
- Junior youths would have the opportunity to develop a visual portfolio through these service projects over the three year period.
